Needing a Break or Planning a Vacation

Family members tell us we are the perfect place for people who need a comfortable home-away-from-home when they are out of town or just need a short break. Many like to schedule arrival a few days before their trip and departure a few days after they return.

Transitioning from Hospital or Rehab to Home

A number of families would like to feel confident about their loved one being independent and safe when returning home after a hospital or rehab stay. A short post-hospital or post-rehab Assisted Living stay can provide daily assistance and support while strengthening and recovery continue. Therapy can also be provided if ordered by a physician.

Short-term Respite Stays

Not sure if you are ready to move to Assisted Living? Stay for up to 90 days in order to experience the comfort of our apartments and make new friendships along the way. Respite and short-term stays are affordable, easy to arrange and subject to availability.

RESPITE CARE at The Long Community

Respite care is more than a short break from caregiving. It provides you with the peace of mind that your loved one is receiving the very best 24-hour care while you tend to your own needs. We all need a mental or physical break from our work sometimes. Caring for a loved one is no different. Give your loved one, and yourself, the gift of a short stay in our Assisted Living so you can continue to give your very best self to the one you care for.

When Respite Care is right for you or your loved one:

Vacation

If you are a caregiver and are planning a vacation but are concerned about who will care for your loved one while you are away, a respite stay is a great option!

Considering a Move

If you are considering a move to a Personal Care or Assisted Living community, a respite stay is a great way to try it out before making a commitment.

Recharge

If you need some time for self-care to recharge your batteries to be your best self to provide care for your loved one, respite stay may be a benefit.
